The Center for Great Expectations provides residential treatment for homeless pregnant and parenting women and adolescents with substance use and mental health disorders and their children.

- The Center provides a safe environment where women are invited to experience, choose and maintain physical, spiritual, and psychological health for themselves and their children, thereby breaking generational cycles of homelessness, abuse and neglect.
- We serve our residents' infants and children in our licensed Child Development Center (Katy's Place).
- Our continuum of care includes an Outpatient Treatment Centered located in New Brunswick.
- Residents who graduate may reside in the Center's 27 Permanent Supportive Housing apartments.
